

STEVE KAUFER

PRESIDENT/SENIOR CONSULTANT

Inter/Action Associates, Inc.

Steve Kaufer, CPP has worked in the security industry for more than forty-nine years. Since 1989 he has provided security management consulting services to a variety of medium to large private sector and government organizations. He specializes in security for healthcare facilities, multi-family housing, and event venues. In 1992 he co-founded the Workplace Violence Research Institute and has personally trained more than 10,000 employees, managers, and supervisors in the prevention of occupational violence. He is active as a member, and former president of the International Association of Professional Security Consultants. He is also a member of ASIS International, Association of Threat Assessment Professionals, International Association for Healthcare Security and Safety, Event Safety Alliance, International Festivals & Events Association, Global Crowd Management Alliance.

IAPSC
April 29 - May 1 | San Diego
2025

INTERNATIONAL
ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL SECURITY
CONSULTANTS