

THOMAS J. MCCOMAS

SECURITY SYSTEMS CONSULTANT

Bastion Security Group

Thomas J. McComas is the President of Bastion Security Group LLC, an independent security consulting firm. Thomas has 10 years of experience designing complex security, life safety, information, communications, and technology systems and providing consulting services to business owners, architects and engineers on the same. Thomas also provides master planning, third-party design review, project management, bid review services, and authoring of policies and procedures governing an organization's use of electronic and physical security systems.

Thomas has worked across several industries such as critical infrastructure, manufacturing, and higher education. He is Board Certified as a Physical Security Professional (PSP) and a Project Management Professional (PMP). He has a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice where he specialized in criminalistics and earned a certificate in Infrastructure Protection from Texas A&M.

Thomas is a member of the American Society of Industrial Security, International Association of Professional Security Consultants, and the International Association of Counterterrorism and Security Professionals. He previously served on the Board of The American Society of Industrial Security Detroit Chapter as Chapter Chair, Vice-Chair, and Membership Chair promoting the advancement of the security profession.

Thomas is a United States Marine Corps veteran previously serving as the Engineer Chief for 2nd Marine Special Operations Battalion.