IAPSC Board of Directors Election 2012

The policy of the IAPSC is to encourage all members to exercise their right to vote for the candidates of their choice at the Annual Election of Board Members and Officers. The election will take place at the Annual Members Business Meeting convened at the IAPSC Annual Conference at the Marriott Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach, FL on Monday, April 16, 2012 at 7:45am.

The deadline to submit a proxy ballot for this election has passed, but members may still vote in person during the Business Meeting. Members may vote for each of the four (4) Officer positions and for up to eight (8) Board positions. Board positions are two year terms with half being elected each year. Officer positions are elected annually.

President Appoints New Board Member

Mark S. Lex

The IAPSC Board of Directors is pleased to welcome its newest member, Mark Lex from Redding, CA. Mark was appointed by President Rich Grassie to fill a vacancy on the Board. Mark's term will continue through April 2013.

In appointing Mark, Rich Grassie said, "I think Mark is a great choice for a variety of reasons, not the least of which is Mark's recognition among security professionals as a top tier independent consultant with a rich and varied professional background in a variety of security executive positions."

Mark currently specializes in business programs and strategy development; strategic partnerships and alliances; and performing risk mitigation services to a wide range of large, mid, and small cap companies. Mark has worked as a business developer and consultant and continues to maintain an emeritus faculty status with the Security Executive Council. Specifically, Mark develops operational risk strategies and programs; authors articles for members and the security profession; and coaches Chief Security Officers.

Mark spent 15 years as the top security executive for several Fortune 500 organizations. Mark was the Director of Global Security for Abbott Labs; the Director of Safety and Security for W.W. Grainger Inc., and the Director of Corporate Security for Kraft Foods NA. [\[read more\]](#)
