Call for Member Comments

The revised draft of the Best Practice No. 1: Detention of Shoplifting Suspects by Security Agents has been released for review by the membership for the second comment period of 45 days.

Members may log in and download the revised document from Members' Only library in the IAPSC website.

The committee would like to thank the large number of members who responded to the first draft with various comments, suggestions and thoughtful responses. The committee has carefully reviewed each comment and discussed, debated and revised the document accordingly. Although not all comments were accepted, the vast majority were considered and are included in this second draft.

We invite you to send any comments directly to the IAPSC office at iapsc@iapsc.org by Thursday, February 21, 2013.

Sennewald Accolade Nominations

There are just a few days left to submit your nominations!

The Awards committee, duly appointed by the President of the IAPSC, is requesting nominations for the IAPSC Charles A. Sennewald Distinguished Service Accolade. For more information about the award qualifications and selection process, view IAPSC Policy #17.

Nominations, complete with supporting documentation, may be sent to Dave Aggleton at dave.aggleton@aggleton.com by February 1, 2013.
